

Step 17:

Mock Interview Assessment

It is time to do a mock interview several times and assess yourself for readiness. We recommend that you and your interview partner both fill out the assessment to compare results.

Role play the four (A-D) interview steps with your Interview Success Form.

"Act as an experienced hiring manager interviewing me for a [insert job title] position in the [insert industry] industry. Start by generating a list of the top 10 most common interview questions for this role, including a mix of behavioral, situational, and technical questions. Then, conduct a simulated interview by asking me one question at a time. After each answer, provide constructive feedback, including what I did well and how I could improve. Feel free to ask follow-up or probing questions if needed. At the end of the interview, give me an overall evaluation of my performance, highlighting strengths and areas for improvement."
